I agree to the following:

1. Waiver of University Liability for Risks and Dangers.

I acknowledge and understand that there are certain dangers, hazards and risks inherent in interstate travel and in the course work, which include prolonged bouts of exercise while exposed to the desert environment and extreme changes in altitude, all of which are an essential part of this Academic Course, including but not limited to accidents, personal injury and property damage. I understand the risks involved in this activity and expressly assume those risks.

2. Participant Responsibility for Medical Needs.

There are no health-related reasons or problems which preclude or restrict my participation in this Academic Course. I understand that the University cannot be and is not responsible for attending to my medical or medication needs, that I assume all risk and responsibility therefore, and that if I am required to be hospitalized during or as a result of this Academic Course, the University cannot and does not assume any legal responsibility for payment of such costs. I hereby give permission to Dr. Terrence Sweeney and Tara Fay to authorize emergency medical treatment or hospital treatment as necessary, and to send me home for health reasons if necessary.

3. Disclaimer of University Responsibility.

I understand that the University in no way represents, or acts as agent for, the transportation carriers, hotels, and other suppliers of services connected with the Academic Course. I further understand and agree that the University, its trustees, officers, employees and agents are not responsible or liable for any injury, damage, loss, accident, delay or other irregularity which may be caused by the defect of any vehicle or the negligence or default of any company or person engaged in providing or performing any of the services involved in this Academic Course; not responsible for losses or expenses due to sickness, weather, strikes, hostilities, wars, natural disasters, or other such causes; and not responsible for any disruption of travel arrangements, or any consequent additional expenses that may be incurred therefrom.

4. University’s Rights.

The University reserves the right to cancel without penalty the offering and conduct of the Academic Course and the right to withdraw any part of the Academic Course and to make any alternations, deletions or modifications in departure dates, the itinerary and/or the Academic Course as deemed necessary by the University or by the Course Faculty as agent of the University.

5. Other Participant Responsibilities.

I understand that in the event of cancellation or changes being made, refunds will be given in accordance with the provisions of the policy explained in the Academic Course materials. I understand that if I wish to cancel my reservation in the course, I must do so in writing. The refund to which I will be entitled will be as outlined in the Academic Course materials and further explained by the Course Faculty.

6. Potential Travel and Accommodation Problems.

I am aware of the behavior expected of me while participating in this Academic Course. I know that there is certain behavior that is unacceptable and could lead to possible disruption of my participation in the Academic Course. Such behavior shall include time when in the company of other Academic Course members and when I may be physically separated from Academic Course members. Dr. Sweeney has the authority to send me home for behavior reasons. I also acknowledge and understand that should I have or develop legal problems, I will attend to the matter personally with my own personal funds. The University is not responsible for providing any assistance under such circumstances.

9. General.

I certify that I am at least 18 years of age, and am not aware of circumstances which would impede participation in the Academic Course, nor be of any harm or inconvenience to myself or the other participants. The Agreement becomes effective when both parties have signed below.
